

1989

March 18th – Handel's 'Messiah'

Ryton Parish Church

Conductor – R. Bloodworth

Soloists – Gillian Marshall (soprano), Carole Wilson (alto), Anthony Grylls (tenor), Michael McCabe (bass)

June 24th – 'A Promenade Concert!' (featuring Horowitz's 'Horrortorio' and traditional 'Proms' music)

Conductor – R. Bloodworth

Solos were sung by Carolyn Below, Jean Grave, David Telford-Reed, John Below and Stan Gaynor

November 11th – Music for Remembrance Day (featuring Elgar's 'The Spirit of England' and Stainer's 'Crucifixion')

Robert Young Memorial Church

Conductor – R. Bloodworth

Soloists – Adrian McLeish (tenor), Clive Constance (bass)

As well as being dedicated to all those who had died in the service of their country, this concert was also in remembrance of founder member Syd Gotts who had tragically died the previous week.